

The FNC Group's newsletter for weeks 16/17 features important updates regarding the group's recent additions, plans for the 2023 London conference, and remarkable accomplishments of our members both past and present. We strongly recommend all members to peruse the newsletter and share the valuable insights with your colleagues.

The FNC Group warmly welcomes new members and is eager to explore possible business ventures and collaborations that they can bring to the network.

FNC Group London Conference 2023 updates

As we are nearing the conference please remember the important dates.

One 2 One Releasing date : 15 May 2023

Arrive London : 31 May 2023 morning or before

Booking your hotel room near the location . Please use the below google to find the distance between major hotels. There are many good hotels within walking distance.

Please follow the timing as the agenda for the maximum benefits

We have limited seats available now and we can release it on request. All delegates must settle the registration before releasing the one2one scheduler.

Quick Round Meeting

As we mentioned in our previous email, an exciting new session called the "Quick Round Session" has been scheduled for May 31, 2023, from 2pm-6pm. The session will involve dividing all delegates into small groups for 20-minute interactions. After every 20 minutes, the groups will be reshuffled, and each delegate will be assigned a table number to follow. A software is currently being developed to prevent meeting duplication. This presents an excellent opportunity for attendees to interact with as many members as possible before the official cocktail reception. Participants are requested to collect their meeting registration on the 31st of May between 12 Noon Onward. Any new developments will be communicated to attendees in due course.

Thank you, Sponsors

The FNC Group would like to express their deepest gratitude and appreciation to their sponsors for their invaluable contributions towards planning and executing their upcoming event on a more significant and comprehensive scale. The group is thrilled to provide information about their sponsors and acknowledge the integral role they play in making the event a success. The FNC Group is eagerly looking forward to a successful conference and is profoundly grateful for the unwavering support of their members.
